Story Writing

Long long ago, there lived a poor boy named Somu. One day, he was walking on the road. Suddenly, he fell into a hole. He got out of the hole, looked around and started walking. He saw a train. It was sad. He asked the train, "why are you sad?". It said no one was coming with him for rounds. He thought he would take a round on the train and he got into it. After a few minutes three thieves entered the train. A thief threw his sword towards him but someone caught the sword. He fought with the thieves and finally he won and the thieves ran away.

He and the train were very happy. After a few minutes he bid good bye to the train and got out. He started walking on the road. His legs started paining. Suddenly he saw a jeep, he said 'ok! I got a jeep to take a drive.' He got into the jeep and started his drive. After a few minutes a giant bird tried to peck the jeep. The jeep was very frightened. It asked for help from the boy. He said 'Don't worry! I will rescue you'. Suddenly he pressed a yellow button and a thunderous sound was heard. Hearing the sound the bird flew away. The jeep and Somu were very happy. Now it started raining. He got out of the jeep. He saw an umbrella and held it over his head. The umbrella turned into a castle. He entered into it and ate the dinner that was laid out and went to sleep. It was morning. He walked up a tunnel and reached a road. Walking along the road, he reached his home.
